

The Benefits of Being a Member of

Your union is made up of educated professionals able to provide you with top-notch services.

- We negotiate with your employer for the best collective agreement.
- We defend our members' rights and offer representation.
- We lobby to improve health-care standards in the industry.
- We educate our members through various free workshops & bursaries for both members and their family.
- We offer occupational health & safety education & assistance.
- We offer disability assistance.
- We offer members the opportunity to become involved in union directives.
- We actively promote member and community wellness.
- We sponsor and support member community interests & charitable events.
- We offer union member discounts & benefits from various businesses.

... and so much more!

Call us at 1-844-280-HSAA (4722)

LOG IN to the Member Hub

member.hsaa.ca